SCIENTIFIC PERSONAL PROGRAM

Dear Professor Fausto Pinto

On behalf of CardioAlex Board and Scientific Committee, we have the pleasure to invite you to participate in

CardioAlex 2020 Conference

The Conference will be held in the conference halls of BIBLIOTHECA ALEXANDRINA, on the marvelous beach of Alexandria, Egypt, from 7th of October to 9th of October 2020 and will be transformed into a unique hybrid experience like no other.

We will be appreciating your valuable participation via our virtual platform and zoom application in the activities of CardioAlex.20

**The program this year is unique, innovative very progressive, where all types of sessions will be available from from comprehensive spotlight sessions, controversies, debates, lectures, competitive recorded abstracts and JCA presentations, to specialized sessions for technicians and nurses, also this year we prepared more than local overseas live transmission sessions, ICR live in a box, which won't like to miss any of them.

* Our world is changing, but global events will always be the key to connecting people.

The new shape of CardioAlex will give our audience the liberty to attend from anywhere around the world with no limitations or restrictions.

The following is your detailed scientific personal program during the conference
